

Please Join Us...

Optimizing Multiple Myeloma Care Through Pharmacy Innovation

Presenters:

Julie Stakiw, MD

Hematologist, Saskatoon Cancer Centre
Clinical Professor of Medicine, University of Saskatchewan

Dominic Duquette, B.Pharm, M.Sc

Clinical Pharmacist in Hemato-Oncology – CHU de Québec
Adjunct Clinical Professor, Université Laval
Clinical Researcher, CRCHU

Date: Friday, April 24, 2026

Time: 5:30 pm – 7:00 pm CST

Location: TCU Place
35 22 St E, Saskatoon, SK, S7K 0C8

Learning Objectives:

- Review current evidence and clinical considerations in managing multiple myeloma across treatment settings
- Explore strategies to optimize patient experience and workflow efficiency in oncology care
- Discuss health system considerations for integrating innovative therapies into clinical practice

This learning activity has been funded by Sanofi Specialty Care in accordance with the Code of Ethics of Innovative Medicines Canada.